

Administrative Staff

Assistant Athletic Director for Football

Scott Draper

Scott Draper is in his 17th season with the Michigan football program. He was promoted to assistant athletic director in 2002 and spent seven years as the team's Director of Football Operations.

Draper works with Michigan head football coach Rich Rodriguez with administrative duties associated with the team and Schembechler Hall.

A native of Linden, Mich., Draper worked with the video staff (1992-94) and served as a graduate assistant on offense (1995-96) before accepting his current position.

Draper and his wife, the former Laura Andres of Allen Park, Mich., are the parents of a son, Will, and daughter, Anna.

Director of Football Operations

Brad Labadie

Brad Labadie is in his eighth season with the Michigan football program. He is in his third year as the Director of Football Operations after spending four years as the team's Coordinator of Player Development.

Labadie's current responsibilities include working with the players as a resource for issues outside of football and academics, as well as assisting with the recruiting effort.

A native of Adrian, Mich., Labadie worked as the defensive video assistant (2001) and as the offensive graduate assistant (Spring 2002) with the Wolverines prior to accepting his player development position.

Labadie graduated from Saginaw Valley State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history education. He was also a four-year letterman and two-year captain of the Saginaw Valley football team. Labadie earned a master's degree in sports management from the University of Michigan in 2007.

Labadie and his wife, the former Melissa Lockwood of Saginaw, reside in Ypsilanti with their sons, Gabriel, Turner and Mason.

Schembechler Hall Secretary

Michelle Guidry-Pan

Michelle Guidry-Pan is in her 20th year with the University of Michigan. She joined the football program prior to the 2008 season after working the past eight years in the athletic development office.

Guidry-Pan works with the medical, equipment and recruiting staffs.

Prior to joining the athletic department in 2000, Guidry-Pan spent 11 years in the clerical staff with the Department of Facility, Planning and Design at the University.

Guidry-Pan has a son, Cody, and daughter, Taylor.

ter, Taylor.

Schembechler Hall Facility Manager

Larry Martin

Larry Martin is in his eighth year as the facility manager for Schembechler Hall. He works with the football staff on improvements and upgrades to the Wolverines' facility. Martin also supervises Oosterbaan Fieldhouse and South Ferry Field.

He moved to the Athletic Department after three years as Assistant Director for Intramural Sports at the University.

A native of Saginaw, Mich., Martin earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Ferris State University and a Master of Science degree from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. While at Ferris, he also played baseball and was the GLIAC (Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) Player of the Year and a third-team All-American his senior year. Before coming to Michigan, Martin spent three years as the Intramural Director at Texas Christian University.

In his free time, Martin is an avid sports official working in the college basketball ranks. He also enjoys golf and running.

Martin and his wife, Cheryl, have a daughter, Mallory, and a son, Bryce.

Executive Assistant to the Head Coach

Jennifer Maszatics

Jennifer Maszatics is in her 10th season with Michigan football as the executive assistant to head coach.

She joined the Michigan football program in 1999 after working one year as the executive secretary to the chair of the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Michigan. Maszatics also spent one year as an executive secretary at M-CARE.

Prior to her employment at the University, Maszatics worked eight years as the executive secretary to the vice president of clinical services at Mt. Sinai Medical Center in Cleveland, Ohio. She also spent two years as an administrative assistant at Corporate Events Management - Travel Consultants, Inc., in Grand Rapids.

Maszatics graduated from Western Michigan University with a bachelor of science degree in 1987.

Maszatics and her husband, Jim, a Michigan alumnus, are the parents of two daughters, Alexandra and Victoria.

External Relations / Administrative Assistant

Dusty Rutledge

Dusty Rutledge is in his first season with the Michigan football program, serving as the team's External Relations/ Administrative Assistant.

Rutledge served as the video coordinator at West Virginia from 2001-07. He joined the Mountaineers staff after spending four seasons (1997-2000) as a special assistant to former U-M assistant coach and then Indiana University head coach Cam Cameron (1997-2000).

Prior to assisting Cameron, Rutledge was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator under coach Rich Rodriguez for three seasons at Glenville State (1994-96). He assisted Rodriguez during the seasons when the Pioneers earned three WVIAC titles. Rutledge's other coaching experience came as the offensive line coach at Fairmont State College (1988-93).

In 1991, Rutledge graduated from Fairmont State with a bachelor of arts degree. During three of his years at Fairmont, he played football and remains one of college football's last player-coaches. Rutledge was pressed into service as a long snapper against Shepherd during his senior year when he already serving as a student assistant coach.

Rutledge is originally from Rockford, Ohio.

Administrative Assistant / Player Family Coordinator

Kelly Vaughn

Kelly Vaughn is in her second season as an administrative assistant with the Michigan football program. Vaughn provides administrative support to the assistant coaches.

In addition, Vaughn coordinates the team's intranet website for families and former players, assists the recruiting department with video management and game day operations and is the bowl game event coordinator.

Vaughn joined the football staff after working three years in minor league hockey and another two years in publishing with Tribune Media Services in Glens Falls, N.Y.

Vaughn graduated from the University of Michigan with distinction from the Division of Kinesiology in 2001, earning a B.A. in sports management and communication. She received the Stan Kemp Award and Paul A. Hunsicker Award from the Division of Kinesiology. Vaughn also served as Student President of Kinesiology Student Government during her senior year.

She interned in the Athletic Department as an undergraduate, working with the Athletic Media Relations office for two years (2000-01) and was a member of Team Blue during the 2000 academic year.

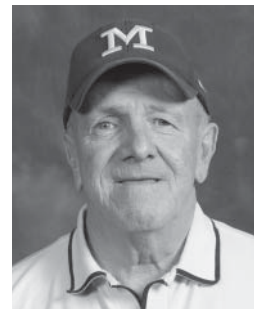

Vaughn coaches All-Star competitive cheerleading with Michigan Xtreme Cheer in Ann Arbor. She resides in Ann Arbor with her Australian Shepherd, Maverick.

Dwayne Gray
Schembechler Hall

Jeff Pipkin
Schembechler Hall

Harold Widner
Schembechler Hall

Equipment Staff

Director of Equipment Operations

Jon Falk

Jon Falk is in his 35th season as the head equipment manager for the Michigan football program. Falk was honored for his dedication to the department in 1994, becoming an "Honorary 'M' Man" and was recognized in 2000 by the U-M Club of Detroit with the naming of the annual Hatch-Falk Scholarship for a Student Football Manager.

One of the most respected equipment managers in the nation, Falk has been the executive director of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) for the past 22 years. He won the association's 2001 Glen Sharp National Equipment Manager of the Year award and received the organization's Lifetime Achievement Award in 2005.

He is responsible for the overall budgeting of the athletic department's equipment needs and oversees a staff of five full-time assistants and seven student workers.

A native of Oxford, Ohio, Falk graduated from Talawanda High School in 1967 and earned his degree in physical education from Miami University in 1971. He worked as a student manager at Miami in football and baseball during his undergraduate days. Upon graduation, Falk accepted an assistant equipment manager position at Miami before accepting the head job with Bo Schembechler at Michigan in 1974.

Falk and his wife, the former Cheri Boychuck of Ann Arbor, reside in Chelsea, with their daughter Katie. They also have two adult children, Joe and Nicki Winkle, and one grandchild, Joey.

Assistant Equipment Manager

Bob Bland

Bob Bland is in his 22nd year as an assistant equipment manager for the football program. He is responsible for assisting Jon Falk in the daily operations of the football equipment room.

Bland also coordinates the equipment for men's and women's basketball and wrestling. He has the distinction of being part of two of Michigan's national championship teams with football (1997) and men's basketball (1989) and was awarded an Honorary "M" in June 2005. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association (AEMA).

A native of Kilgore, Ohio, Bland is a 1980 graduate of Carrollton (Ohio) High School. He attended Otterbein College in Westerville, Ohio where he earned a B.A. in speech communications in 1984. He was a student manager for the football, basketball and baseball teams, the latter two of which participated in the Division III Final Four (1981) and College World Series (1983), respectively.

Bland became the equipment manager at Otterbein in the fall of 1984 and held that position until coming to Michigan in 1987.

He and his wife, the former Mary Jane Smith, reside in Whitmore Lake.

Assistant Equipment Manager

Rick Brandt

Rick Brandt is in his 12th season as an assistant equipment manager for the football program.

His responsibilities include on field maintenance of football equipment, packing the Michigan football trailer for travel for all games, including the bowl game, and ensuring all players' apparel and footwear needs are properly met.

Brandt also coordinates the equipment for softball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's swimming and diving and women's water polo. He is certified by the Athletic Equipment Manager's Association

(AEMA).

A native of Milford, Ohio, he graduated from Ohio University (B.S., 1995) and the University of Illinois (M.S., 1997). He served as a student manager for football and baseball at Ohio University, then became a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois.

Brandt and his wife, Samantha, reside in Pinckney with their daughter, Mallory.

Assistant Equipment Manager

Brett McGiness

Brett McGiness is in his fifth season as an assistant equipment manager for the Michigan football program. McGiness started as an intern for the 2004 and 2005 seasons. He began working full-time in the spring of 2006.

His responsibilities include on field maintenance of football equipment as well as inventorying and issuing apparel. McGiness also assists Bob Bland with the men and women's basketball programs.

A native of Lake City, Mich., McGiness graduated from Central Michigan University with a Bachelor of Science in Sports Studies in 2005. He was a student manager for the Chippewas' football team for five seasons.

McGiness resides in Ann Arbor.

Video Staff

Video Coordinator

Phil Bromley

Phil Bromley is in his 19th season as the video coordinator for the Michigan football program.

A four-year letterman (1981-84) as a center at the University of Florida, Bromley started all four seasons for the Gators, earning freshman and sophomore All-American honors in 1981 and 1982, and All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1983 and 1984. He was a second-team All-American selection as a senior.

Bromley earned his bachelor of science degree in psychology from the University of Florida in 1985, and his master's in education from Florida in 1988.

He served as a graduate assistant at Florida in 1986-87 and joined the Michigan football staff as a graduate assistant for two seasons (1988-89). Bromley was a volunteer coach for the Wolverines for the spring of 1990 and took over the video coordinator's position prior to the start of the 1990 season.

Bromley and his wife, the former Jill Brumbaum of Plantation, Fla., reside in Saline with their sons, Tripp and Alex, and daughter, Christina.

Video Assistant

Kevin Undeen

Kevin Undeen is in his seventh season as a full-time video assistant with the Michigan football program. He shoots video of games and practice sessions and helps in editing.

Undeen, 31, is in his 11th season with the program after having served four seasons as a student working with video coordinator Phil Bromley. Undeen graduated from Michigan in 2002 with a general studies degree in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts.

A native of Quincy, Mich., Undeen is a 1995 graduate of Quincy High School. He earned nine varsity letters in baseball, basketball and cross country. He is single and resides in Ypsilanti.

Schembechler Hall Training Facility

The Schembechler Hall Athletic Training Room serves as the main athletic training facility for the football program. This 20,000 square foot facility has separate taping, treatment, rehabilitation and hydrotherapy areas. The athletic training room is used daily for injury rehabilitation, pre-practice preparation and post-practice treatments.

Located adjacent to the athletic training room in Schembechler Hall is a 5,000 square foot medical suite. This area includes a team physician's office, an athletic counseling office, two private exam rooms and an x-ray/MRI viewing area. There is also a clean room that is used for simple medical procedures such as sutures and injections. Also located in this area is a fluoroscope that produces x-ray like images.

This facility is maintained and operated by the head athletic trainer, four assistant athletic trainers, a graduate assistant athletic trainer, eight athletic training students and a medical office manager/insurance coordinator.

The treatment area has 13 treatment tables, a stretching table, massage bed and a Stretch Station. It also contains a variety of therapeutic modalities such as cryotherapy, thermotherapy, electrical muscle stimulation, ultrasound and intermittent compression.

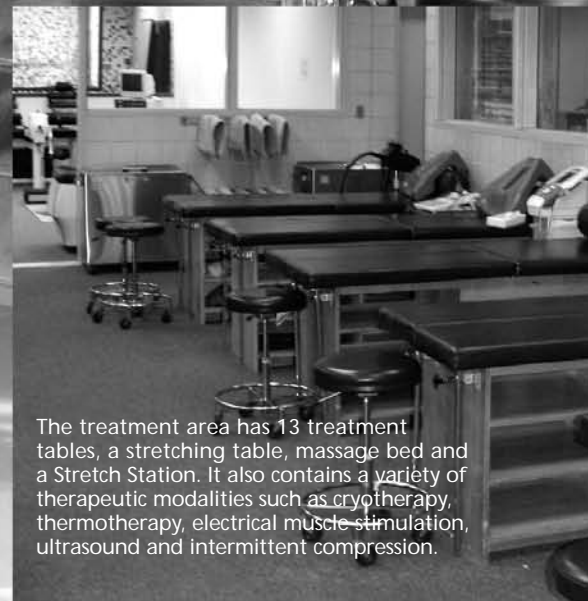

The rehabilitation area contains cardiovascular and rehabilitation equipment used to treat injuries. There are also dumb bells, medicine balls, thera-band, swiss balls, a Total Gym, proprioceptive training equipment and a Biodex isokinetic testing machine.

The hydrotherapy area contains an extremity whirlpool, full body whirlpool, a cold plunge pool and a Swim-Ex. The Swim-Ex is used as a multi-purpose aquatic training and rehabilitative environment that allows for reduced weight bearing during the early stages of rehabilitation.

Athletic Medicine

Michigan's Athletic Medicine program is dedicated to the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries sustained by Wolverine student-athletes. Each student-athlete has access to a nationally-renowned athletic medicine staff, listed among the largest and most comprehensive in the country. The athletic medical staff is comprised of six team physicians and 18 certified athletic trainers, two of whom are physical therapists.

At the Michigan athletic department's disposal is a network of medical specialists in the distinguished University of Michigan Hospital system, representing every facet of athletic health care and providing access to the most advanced medical diagnostic testing and treatment resources available.

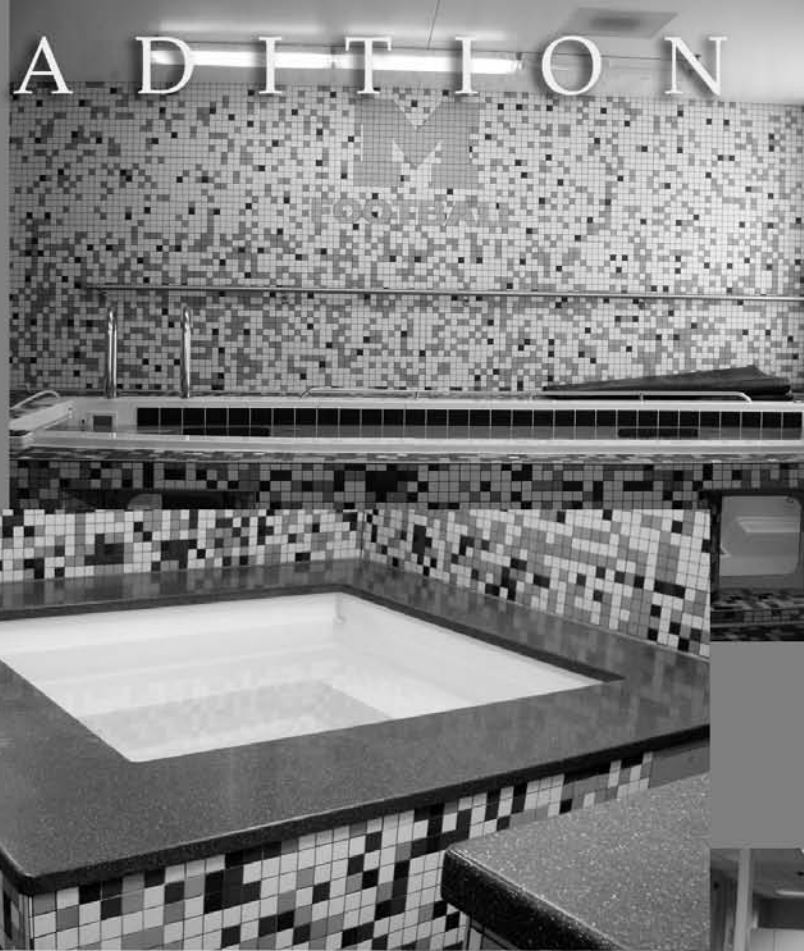

The treatment area has 13 treatment tables, a stretching table, massage bed and a Stretch Station. It also contains a variety of therapeutic modalities such as cryotherapy, thermotherapy, electrical muscle stimulation, ultrasound and intermittent compression.

BALL TRADITION

The hydrotherapy area contains an extremity whirlpool, full body whirlpool, a cold plunge pool and a Swim-Ex. The Swim-Ex is used as a multi-purpose aquatic training and rehabilitative environment that allows for reduced weight bearing during the early stages of rehabilitation.

The rehabilitation area contains cardiovascular and rehabilitation equipment used to treat injuries. There are also dumbbells, medicine balls, theraband, swiss balls, a Total Gym, proprioceptive training equipment and a Biodex isokinetic testing machine.

Athletic Medicine

Assistant Athletic Director / Director of Athletic Training

Paul Schmidt

Paul Schmidt is in his 18th year as Supervisor of Athletic Training at the University of Michigan. He was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in Fall 2004.

Schmidt, who is in his 25th year at Michigan, served as the assistant football trainer for five years. He was a graduate assistant at Michigan from 1983-85 prior to gaining a promotion to a full-time position with the Wolverines in 1986.

An Eagle Scout and graduate of Fremont (Ohio) Ross H.S., Schmidt graduated from Ohio State in 1983 with a B.S.

in physical therapy. He earned his master's degree in exercise physiology from Michigan in 1985.

Schmidt oversees the prevention, care and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for all U-M athletes. He coordinates a staff of 14 full-time, two graduate assistants and 45 student trainers. He serves as a liaison between Michigan coaches, athletes, parents and the Wolverine medical staff.

He is a member of the Michigan Physical Therapy Association, the American Physical Therapy Association, the Michigan Athletic Trainer's Society and the National Athletic Trainer's Association. Schmidt was honored for his dedication to the department in 2001, becoming an "Honorary 'M' Man."

Schmidt and his wife, Angela, reside in Saline with their daughters Sarah Michelle and Rachel Christine.

Football Athletic Trainer

Lenny Navitskis

Lenny Navitskis is in his second season as an assistant athletic trainer with the Michigan football program. He comes to Ann Arbor after spending six years at the University of Georgia. Navitskis worked with the football program after completing a graduate assistantship.

A 2000 graduate of the University of Georgia with a Master's of Education in exercise & sports science, he was named Assistant Athletic Trainer in June 2000. Navitskis was a part time instructor in the department of Kinesiology in the Athletic Training Education Program at Georgia. He also worked in the student athletic training program, serving as a staff advisor to the UGA sports medicine club and as a clinical instructor in the education program.

Navitskis received his Bachelor's degree in health sciences from James Madison University in 1995. He was an Athletic Trainer with several High Schools in the Baltimore, Md., area, before accepting a position as an Athletic Trainer at Pfeiffer University, a Division II school in North Carolina.

A certified and licensed member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, Navitskis completed the NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist examination. He is also a Nationally Registered Emergency Medical Technician.

Lenny and his wife, Amy, currently reside in Ann Arbor.

Football Athletic Trainer

Phil Johnson

Phil Johnson is in his eighth year as the assistant athletic trainer with the Michigan football program following a year with the track and field and field hockey teams. He is responsible for the daily prevention, treatment and management of athletic injuries, as well as assisting in the coordination of all the health needs of the student-athletes.

Johnson did his undergraduate work at the University of Iowa where he worked with a number of athletic teams during his four years. Upon completion of his bachelor of science degree in exercise science at Iowa in 1997, Johnson became a certified athletic trainer. He did his graduate work at Penn State University, working with the women's soccer, men's gymnastics, ice hockey and rugby teams. He earned a master of science degree in kinesiology in 1999.

During the summer of 1998, Johnson completed an internship with the New York Jets. Following graduate school, he returned during the 1999-2000 season as a full-time intern with the Jets, where he assisted with the daily operation of the medical staff.

Johnson is American Red Cross certified in Professional Rescuer CPR. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and the Michigan Athletic Trainer's Society.

Johnson and his wife, Meghan, reside in Ypsilanti with their daughters, Grace and Josephine.

Rehabilitation Specialist

Vahan Agbabian

Vahan Agbabian is in his 10th year as the rehabilitation specialist for the University of Michigan football program. He is responsible for assisting the staff in the rehabilitation of athletic related injuries. Agbabian is in his 18th year as a clinical athletic trainer at MedSport.

He received his bachelor of arts degree from Albion College in 1984 and his master of arts degree from Western Michigan University in 1986. Agbabian is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and Michigan Athletic Trainers Society.

Agbabian and his wife, Julie, reside in Ann Arbor with their daughter, Ani, and son, Alexander.

Medical Office Manager

Karen Beeman

Karen Beeman is in her 26th year with the Michigan Athletic Department. She is in her seventh year as the medical office manager.

Beeman oversees the student-athlete medical documentation charting and the electronic dictation filing systems. She also works with insurance companies and pays all medical bills for the department. Beeman also handles scheduling of all physicians, counselors, nutritionists and special medical tests.

Beeman came to the athletic medicine program after 19 years as the secretary for the men's basketball staff. She also assisted the men's and women's soccer, women's cross country and women's track and field coaches during that time frame.

A native of Chelsea, Beeman received her associate's degree from Cleary College in 1982.

Beeman and her husband, Rick, reside in Chelsea with their daughter, Kendra.

Team Physician

Amy Bohn, MD

Dr. Amy Bohn is in her ninth year as a team physician for the University of Michigan Athletic Department. She is a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Family Medicine specializing in Primary Care Sports Medicine.

A native of Clinton Township, Mich., Dr. Bohn earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Michigan in 1991. While at Michigan, she served as a student athletic trainer working with a number of athletes and athletic teams.

Dr. Bohn received her medical degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine in Detroit. After completing her residency in Family Medicine at Bon Secours Hospital in Grosse Pointe, she returned to the University of Michigan to complete a fellowship in Sports Medicine through the Department of Family Medicine.

Dr. Bohn is board certified in family medicine with a certificate of added qualification for sports medicine. She is a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine, the American College of Sports Medicine, and the American Academy of Family Practice.

In addition to her work with the athletic department and her clinical duties with the Department of Family Medicine, she also participates in teaching the family medicine residents and sports medicine fellows. She lectures on a number of sports medicine topics.

Dr. Bohn and her husband, Chris, live in Canton with their son, Tyler, and daughters, Alexandra and Sydney. They have yellow and black labrador retrievers, Maize and Blue.

Team Physician

James E. Carpenter, MD

In his 14th season as a team physician with the University of Michigan, Dr. Carpenter specializes in the management of musculoskeletal injuries in athletes.

A native of Birmingham, Mich., Dr. Carpenter is an associate professor at the University of Michigan Medical School where he teaches orthopaedics and sports medicine. He is a member of the University of Michigan Sports Medicine Program and is the chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery.

Dr. Carpenter earned an engineering degree at Cornell (1980) and his medical degree from Michigan (1984). He completed his orthopaedic training at the Harvard Orthopaedic Program and was an assistant in Orthopaedics at Massachusetts General Hospital.

He has focused the emphasis of his research and practice on shoulder and knee injuries among student-athletes since returning to Michigan in 1990.

In 1994, Dr. Carpenter was chosen as the Mid-America Orthopaedic Association Traveling Fellow. He was also selected to represent the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine throughout Europe as a traveling fellow in 1998. Carpenter has been honored awards for research from the American Society for Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons and the Sports Medicine Society.

He and his wife, Jenny, live in Ann Arbor with their three children.

Team Physician

C. Daniel Hendrickson, MD

Dr. C. Daniel (Dan) Hendrickson is in his 11th year as a team physician at the University of Michigan. He is currently the director of medical services and medical director of the Athletic Medicine Training Program. His medical specialty is Primary Care Sports Medicine and Internal Medicine.

A native of Hatboro, Pa., Dr. Hendrickson is a 1989 graduate of Penn State University and Penn State's College of Medicine in Hershey. He also completed his residency at Penn State before moving on to complete a fellowship in Sports Medicine at Graduate Hospital's Human Performance and Sports Medicine program in the Philadelphia area.

Before coming to Michigan, he was an Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine at the Penn State College of Medicine, and an Attending Physician in the Department of Medicine at Lehigh Valley Hospital.

Dr. Hendrickson is board certified in internal medicine, and a member of the U.S. Olympic Sports Medicine Society and the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

Additionally, Hendrickson has earned numerous awards and merits. Included are the Top 20 Teaching Award at Lehigh Valley Hospital in 1997, American Heart Association and NIH Research Awards and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He has also covered numerous sporting events including the New York City Marathon, and served as a volunteer at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid.

Dr. Hendrickson and his wife, Marianne have three children: Kevin, David and Michael.

Team Physician

Jeffrey A. Housner, MD

Dr. Jeff Housner is in his sixth season as a team physician with the University of Michigan Athletic Department.

He continues to serve as team physician for the Ann Arbor based USA Hockey National Development Team, dating back to the 1997 inaugural season. His previous team physician experience was obtained at Eastern Michigan University, Hillsdale College, UCLA and Pepperdine University.

Currently, Dr. Housner is an Assistant Professor at the University of Michigan within the departments of Orthopaedic Surgery and Family Medicine. He practices musculoskeletal sports medicine at MedSport, evaluating patients and athletes at both the Ann Arbor and Brighton offices. His research interest involves the treatment of tendon injuries.

Dr. Housner earned his undergraduate (1987) and medical degrees (1991) at the University of Michigan. He performed residency and fellowship training at UCLA before returning to Ann Arbor in 1996.

He and his wife, Allison, live in Ann Arbor with their two boys, Stein and Max.

Sports Dietitian

Caroline Mandel, MS, RD, CSSD

Caroline Mandel is in her ninth year with the University of Michigan Athletic Department as Director of Sports Nutrition.

Originally from Columbus, Ohio, Mandel attended the University of Massachusetts at Amherst where she swam on the women's varsity swim team and earned her Bachelors of Science degree in exercise physiology.

At the University of Michigan, she became a registered dietitian while completing dual Masters of Science degrees in kinesiology and human nutrition.

Before joining the Athletic Medicine staff in 2000, Mandel was a nutrition specialist in Preventive Cardiology, an outpatient clinic of the University of Michigan Health System. She is a member of the American Dietetic Association and the American College of Sports Medicine. Mandel has been recognized for her achievements in sports and cardiovascular nutrition becoming the Michigan Dietetic Association's Recognized Young Dietitian of the Year for 1994 and Dietitian of the Year for 1999.

Mandel and her husband, Scott, live in Ann Arbor with their two daughters, Hailey and Leah.

Team Physician

Bruce S. Miller, MD

Dr. Bruce Miller, an orthopaedic surgeon and Sports Medicine specialist, is in his sixth season as team physician with the University of Michigan.

Dr. Miller is a member of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Michigan Medical School where he teaches orthopaedic surgery and sports medicine. He is a member of the University of Michigan Sports Medicine Program and the UM Shoulder Group at MedSport. He also serves as Program Director for University of Michigan's Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Fellowship.

Dr. Miller is a graduate of Harvard University (1990), Harvard Medical School (1995) and the Harvard Orthopaedic Residency Program (2000). He completed Fellowship Training in Sports Medicine (Steadman Hawkins Clinic, Vail, Colo.), Shoulder and Elbow Surgery (University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia) and Orthopaedic Trauma Surgery (Harvard Medical School).

Dr. Miller's research focuses on athletic injuries of the knee and shoulder, and cartilage restoration.

He and his wife, Jennifer, live in Ann Arbor with their four children.

Team Physician

Jon Sekiya, MD

Dr. Jon Sekiya, an orthopaedic surgeon and sports medicine specialist, is in his second season as a team physician for the University of Michigan.

Originally from Honolulu, Hawaii, Dr. Sekiya is an associate professor at the U-M Medical School where he teaches orthopaedics and sports medicine. He is a member of the University of Michigan's Sports Medicine Program.

Dr. Sekiya earned his electrical engineering degree from the University of California at Davis (1992) and then his medical degree from Wake Forest University (1996). He completed his orthopaedic surgery training at the University of Michigan (2001) and then a sports medicine and shoulder fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh (2002). He served three years with the United States Navy as a Lieutenant Commander and orthopaedic sports medicine surgeon. Before returning to the University of Pittsburgh in 2005, he received additional hip arthroscopy training from the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail under the direction of Marc Philippon (2005). Sekiya recently returned to the University of Michigan in 2007.

His research interests focuses on athletic injuries of the shoulder, knee and hip. Sekiya is the author of over 100 scientific articles and book chapters, the author/editor of four books, and has given over 100 extramural invited presentations. He is a member of the American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons, American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine, Arthroscopy Association of North America, and the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

He and his wife Jennie, live in Ann Arbor with their son Kimo.

Associate A.D. / Director of Athletic Counseling

Greg Harden

Greg Harden is in his 13th year as the Director of Athletic Counseling and his fourth year as Associate Athletic Director. Harden has been affiliated with the University of Michigan Athletic Department since 1986 when he began working with the Athletic Department as a staff consultant and student-athlete personal development program counselor.

Through his involvement, he has been instrumental in aiding the Athletic Department in the design and implementation of the student and staff development strategies. As well, Harden's collaborative style and efforts have helped to strengthen the Athletic Department's connection with the larger university community.

Harden is President of Power One Performance, Inc. providing performance coaching to corporate executives, professional athletes and community leaders. He was President of Unlimited Access Educational Services (UAES), a non-profit organization. He has also served as Senior Vice President of Associated Consultation and Training, Inc. (ACT) and Executive Director of Leaders in Prevention.

Harden received both his BGS and master's degrees from the University of Michigan. He resides in Ann Arbor with his wife Shelia. They have three children: Brian, Victor and Olivia.

Senior Associate A.D. / Director of Development

Joe Parker

A former U-M swimmer and alum, Joe Parker has a total of 18 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, including four as a student-athlete. Parker is in his sixth year as an Associate Athletic Director with the Michigan Athletic Department. He oversees the department's development and corporate sponsorship initiatives and is the liaison for the football program to administration.

Parker manages the athletic development team, which has raised more than $100 million in five years for scholarships, capital projects and endowments. He also directs the efforts of the corporate relations team that identifies and negotiates key business partnerships, contributing $5 million annually to department operations.

Prior to returning to Michigan, Parker served in key external and administrative roles at the University of Oklahoma, Washington State University and the University of Texas.

Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan in 1987. He added a master's in business administration from Texas in 1994. As a collegiate athlete, Parker was an All-American swimmer at U-M and was captain of the 1987 team that claimed the Big Ten Championship.

Parker and his wife, Jennie, have a daughter, Emma, and a son, Will.

Athletic Media Relations

Director of Football Media Relations

David Ablauf

David Ablauf is in his 13th year with the Michigan Athletic Department. He is in his 11th season coordinating the media efforts for the football program.

Ablauf started as an intern in 1996 and was hired full-time in the media relations office prior to the 1997 football season.

He has overseen the publicity for the men's and women's tennis teams, the women's gymnastics and wrestling programs at Michigan and maintained the department's internet web site for two years.

A 1996 graduate from the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pittsburgh, Ablauf received a dual degree in communications and business. He was an intern with the sports information and marketing offices at Pitt, working with the football, men's and women's basketball, men's soccer and wrestling teams.

He spent two years with WTAE radio on the flagship broadcast of Pittsburgh Steelers football with Myron Cope and Bill Hillgrove.

Ablauf and his wife, Kristen, reside in Ann Arbor, with their son Braden and daughter Riley. Kristen is the Director of Licensing and Trademarks for the University of Michigan.

Associate Athletic Director

Bruce Madej

Bruce Madej is in his 27th year of coordinating media relations for the Michigan Athletic Department. He is responsible for the department's internet web site and coordinating the efforts of the media relations department.

A Dearborn native and graduate of University of Detroit High School, Madej graduated from Western Michigan University in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in communication and education.

After working for The Ypsilanti Press from 1974-75, he joined the staff of The Ann Arbor News where he remained until 1978 before accepting the position of assistant sports information director with Michigan. In 1980, Madej was promoted to associate sports information director, a position he held briefly before joining the American Power Boat Association Offshore Racing Commission as the director of public relations and marketing. In 1982, he returned to Michigan as sports information director. He was honored for his dedication to the department in 2001, becoming an Honorary 'M' Man.

Madej has worked as sports talent for various independent production companies airing his shows on ESPN, USA Network and PASS. In 1990, he handled the color commentary for the PGA's AmeriTech Senior Open golf tournament for WTTN-TV Cadillac-Traverse City. He has handled media relations for the Spirit of Detroit Thunderfest unlimited hydroplane race since 1986. He has also hosted sports talk shows and handled radio play-by-play for hockey, basketball and baseball on WAAM and WTKA in Ann Arbor, as well as color commentary for basketball on WJR in Detroit. Madej has done play-by-play and commentary for boat races on WLLZ-FM, WXYT-AM and WWJ in Detroit, and various stations in Florida and Louisiana.

Madej resides in Ann Arbor, with his wife, Suzette. They have three sons, Michael, John and William.