GAME DAY NOTABLES

- Immediately following the Michigan/Coppin State game, fans will be able to stay and watch the Wolverine football program face Nebraska in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. The game is scheduled for an 8 p.m. kickoff and will be shown on the Crisler Arena big screens.
- Michigan rebounded from the UCLA loss with an 87-80 win over Miami (Ohio). The Wolverines had five-players scoring in double figures as they shot 64.3 percent from the field and matched a season-best offensive output with 87 points. After trailing by one at the half, the Wolverines took charge in the second half building a 17-point lead with four minutes to go.
- This will be the first meeting between Michigan and Coppin State.
- Coppin State comes to Ann Arbor to play its 10th straight road game of 2005-06. In fact, the Eagles play their first 14 games on the road. CSU plays its first home against Norfolk State, Saturday (Jan. 14).
- Coming into the Michigan game, Coppin State will have played six straight top 35 teams -- at Clemson (Nov. 21), at Xavier (Nov. 29), at UCLA (Dec. 4), at Oklahoma (Dec. 10), at Illinois (Dec. 18) and at Pittsburgh (Dec. 21). After the game against Michigan, Coppin State will head across I-96 to take on Michigan State, Saturday (Dec. 31) at the Breslin Center.
- When Michigan plays Coppin State it will be the second MEAC team the Wolverines have played this season. Earlier in December, U-M beat the defending MEAC regular season and Tournament champion Delaware State, 69-49, at Crisler Arena.
- Chris Hunter has recorded back-to-back 15-point games coming off the bench. He had 15 points to lead U-M against UCLA and followed going perfect against Miami (Ohio) with another 15 points on 4-of-4 shooting from the field (3-for-3 on three's and 4-for-4 on free throws).
- Daniel Horton has been averaging a career-best pace for points (14.8), assists (5.0), steals (2.0), field goal percentage (48.5), three-point percentage (37.0) and free throw percentage (81.5).
- Graham Brown continues to lead the Wolverines in rebounding with a career-best pace 7.8 per game. He has five games with 10 or more rebounds this season.
- Michigan is shooting 49.1 percent from the field and have three games shooting over 60.0 percent from the field.

TEAM ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Michigan basketball program will posthumously honor NCAA All-American Bill Buntin (1963-65) by retiring his jersey, No. 22, in a halftime ceremony during the Wolverines' Big Ten Conference home opener against Purdue (Jan. 6). Buntin becomes the fifth player in Michigan history to have his jersey to hang in the Crisler Arena rafters, joining Cazzie Russell (1964-66), whose jersey was retired Dec. 11, 1993; Rudy Tomjanovich (1967-70), whose jersey was retired Feb. 8, 2003; Phil Hubbard (1975-79), whose jersey was retired Jan. 11, 2004 and Glen Rice (1986-89), whose jersey was retired Feb. 20, 2005. Buntin's family and teammates will take part in the ceremony.

Michigan announced junior Brent Petway has missed the fall semester of the basketball season due to academic ineligibility. He will be allowed to practice but cannot participate in games during the first semester. Petway has played in 62 career games with five starts. He averaged 5.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.2 blocks while shooting 60.4 percent from the field in his two seasons with the Wolverines.

The Wolverines opened the season holding their annual Maize and Blue Scrimmage. In addition to the game itself, which was a thrilling 53-50 overtime win for the Maize squad, the event took on more meaning as the Wolverines raised $960 for Hurricane victims. Fans generously donated money as they took in the scrimmage, got autographs, won raffle prizes and watched the Wolverine football team's 33-17 victory over Northwestern on the big screens at Crisler Arena.

The Michigan basketball program and Sports Talk 1050 WTKA have teamed up for a third season of the Michigan Basketball Assistant Coaches Show. During the 2005-06 season, WTKA will host the Michigan Basketball Assistant Coaches Show, scheduled from 7 to 8 p.m. Along with WTKA Sports Beat in the Afternoon host Dennis Fithian, a U-M assistant coach -- Chuck Swenson, Andrew Moore or Mike Jackson -- will join Fithian to discuss Michigan Basketball throughout the course of the season. For a complete schedule please refer to page six of this release on the left side rail.

ESPN will be conducting a "Pride of the Program" series throughout the 2005-06 season. It features all 326 Division I college basketball programs and highlight a significant moment in each program's history. For the Wolverines, their feature will air Wednesday, Feb. 1. The U-M moment will show the Wolverines capturing the program's first national title in 1989. Coached by interim coach Steve Fisher, and led by the Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, Glen Rice (31 pts), U-M won its first national title after Rumeal Robinson sealed the win for Michigan by hitting two clutch free throws with :03 left in overtime to clinch the win 80-79.

TEAM NOTABLES

For the first time in Michigan basketball history, the Maize and Blue have elected four players to serve as captain for the upcoming 2005-06 season. Seniors Lester Abram, Graham Brown, Sherrod Harrell and Chris Hunter were all selected in a team vote prior to the 2005 Basketball Awards Celebration. Abram, Brown and Harrell will all serve as captain for their second straight season after serving as tri-captains in 2004-05. Prior to this season's quad captains, the Wolverines have had no more than three players serve as captain in the 89 years of Michigan Basketball. The Maize and Blue have had tri-captains a total of four times - 1999-2000, 2000-01, 2002-03 and 2004-05.

Michigan started the 2005-06 season running off seven straight wins. That start was the best for the Wolverines under coach Tommy Amaker. The previous best start under Amaker was a 4-0 beginning during the 2003-04 season, where the Wolverines went on to capture the 2004 Postseason NIT championship.

Michigan's 7-0 start was the best for the program since the vacated 1996-97 season, when the Wolverines started 8-0. The last non-vacated season was when the Wolverines started 11-0 to begin the 1988-89 season, where U-M went on to win the program's only national championship.

Michigan has won its first three road games of the season with a 68-47 win at South Florida (Dec. 10), a 71-67 win at Notre Dame (Dec. 3) and a 51-46 win at Boston University (Nov. 22). The last time the Wolverines won three straight road games was during a 13-game winning streak in the 2002-03 season.

With the 68-47 win at South Florida (Dec. 10), Michigan won its third road game of the season. The last time the Wolverines went 3-0 on the road to start a season, was during the vacated 1996-97 season, when U-M went 5-0 in the first road or neutral site games. The last non-vacated season, was during the 1991-92 season, when U-M won its first five games on the road or at neutral sites.

Michigan has held its opponents to 60 or less points in five of its nine games this season. The list includes: Central Michigan, (60, Nov. 18); at Boston University (46, Nov. 22); Miami (Fla.) (53, Nov. 29); Delaware State (49, Dec. 7) and at South Florida (47, Dec. 10). The Wolverines are averaging 71.8 points a game, while holding their opponents to 60.4 points a game.

By holding South Florida (Dec. 10) to just 47 points, Michigan posted back-to-back games holding its opponent to under 50 points. Earlier that week, the Wolverines held Delaware State (Dec. 7) to 49 points. Michigan has held three opponents to 50 points or less this season.

* Due to NCAA sanctions, the University of Michigan has vacated the records from the 1992-93, '95-96, '96-97, '97-98 and '98-99 seasons.

Games affected are: 170 total games, 113-57 overall record, 50-36 Big Ten, 7-4 NCAA, 5-0 NIT and 4-1 Big Ten Tournament.

It also reflects vacating the 1992 Final Four appearance; the 1997 NIT championship; 1993, 1996 and 1998 NCAA Tournament appearances; and the 1998 Big Ten Tournament championship.

With the 21-point win (68-47) at South Florida (Dec. 10), Michigan recorded back-to-back 20-plus point victories. Earlier in that week, the Maize and Blue defeated Delaware State (Dec. 7) by 20 at Crisler Arena (69-49). So far this season, U-M has won by 20-plus point four times -- Central Michigan (27, Nov. 18); Miami (Fla.) (21, Nov. 29); Delaware State (20) and at South Florida (21).

Michigan has twice posted a season-best offensive output of 87 points. The Wolverines did it against both MAC teams on the schedule with 87 points against Central Michigan (Nov. 18) and then against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22). For the season, U-M is averaging 71.8 points a game.

Michigan has had at least two players score in double digits in each of the first nine games. The Wolverines have recorded a season best five players in double figures, two times - against Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22) .

Michigan has three players are averaging in double figures for the Wolverines as Courtney Sims is averaging a career-best 15.2 points, Daniel Horton is averaging a career-best 14.8 points and Lester Abram is averaging 12.2 points. The trio has attributed for 58.8 percent of the Wolverines offense this season.

With 40 rebounds at South Florida (Dec. 10) and a season-high 43 against Delaware State (Dec. 7), Michigan had back-to-back games with 40-or-more rebounds. In fact, the Wolverines have recorded three games with 40-or-more rebounds after grabbing 42 against Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. The Maize and Blue are averaging 35.0 rebounds a game, which is 7.6 better than its opponents, who are averaging 27.6 per game.

Michigan's 16 offensive rebounds at South Florida (Dec. 10), was the second best performance by the Wolverines this season. U-M had a season-best 18 against Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 19) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. The Maize and Blue now have five games with 10-or-more offensive rebounds.

Michigan outrebounded Delaware State (Dec. 7), 43-18, which was a difference of a season-best 25. The prior season best was when the Wolverines outrebounded Central Michigan (Nov. 18) by 16 (37-21) in the season opener. The Wolverines have outrebounded their opponents in 6-of-9 games, with four of those games by 10-or-more.

Three times this season Michigan has shot 60 percent or better from the field in a game -- against Central Michigan (Nov. 18 -- 60.4 percent, 29-for-48); against Delaware State (Dec. 7 - 60.0 percent, 27-for-45) and against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22 -- 64.3 percent, 27-for-42). For the season, Michigan is shooting 49.1 percent from the field.

Michigan shot a season-best from three-point range, connecting on 9-of-16 attempts for 56.2 percent against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22). For the season, the Wolverines have shot 39.7 percent from long range (58-for-146).

Michigan is shooting 74.9 percent on free throws this season, which is second in the Big Ten. The Wolverines have four players shooting over 80 percent on the season -- Ron Coleman (83.3), Dion Harris (83.3), Daniel Horton (81.5) and Lester Abram (81.3). Jerret Smith has gone a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line through nine games.

Juniors Courtney Sims and Dion Harris have not missed a single game in their Michigan careers playing in 74 straight games. Sophomore Ron Coleman added his name to the list as he has played in 40 straight for the Maize and Blue.

Throughout 2004-05, Michigan lost 86 total games due to injuries and other various reasons. The Maize and Blue used 16 different lineups in 31 games in 2004-05 and did not have a single game the entire season with every player at Tommy Amaker's disposal.

Injuries plagued Michigan during the entire 2004-05 season. The most severe loss was Lester Abram, who was out for the year following left shoulder surgery (Dec. 16, 2004). The list of significant injuries throughout the 2004-05 season included: Daniel Horton (four weeks, knee sprain), Graham Brown (four and a half weeks, hernia) and Dani Wohl (four weeks, elbow). Chris Hunter (eight games, right ankle), Brent Petway (two games, shoulder), Amadou Ba (two games, knee and four games, lower back), Ashtyn Bell (five games, broken nose) and Alex Brzozowicz (four games, right ankle) all missed games due to injury.

For the fourth straight year, Michigan could field a starting lineup of lefties. The Wolverines could put Jerret Smith, Alex Brzozowicz and Lester Abram on the perimeter and have Brent Petway and Graham Brown in the post.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

SENIOR WING LESTER ABRAM

Lester Abram was named one of four captains by his teammates for the 2005-06 season. He joins Graham Brown, Sherrod Harrell and Chris Hunter as the program's first quad-captain appointment.

Lester Abram has scored in double figures in 7-of-9 games in 2005-06. For the season he is averaging 12.2 points a game and had a season-best 19 points against Central Michigan (Nov. 18) in the season-opener. In the first game he didn't score in double figures -- at Notre Dame (Dec. 3) -- he hit four free throws, including two that sealed the road win with 1.9 seconds remaining. The other game was against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), when he finished with eight points.

Lester Abram is shooting 53.6 percent from the floor after going 37-for-69 from the field. He also 10-for-21 on three pointers (47.6 percent) and is 26-for-32 from the free throw line (81.3 percent). He has gone perfect from the free throw line in four games, including a season-best 7-for-7 performance at South Florida (Dec. 10)

Lester Abram has scored in double figures in 45 of 73 career games, currently holding 854 career points for the Maize and Blue. He is 146 points away from become the 40th Wolverine scoring 1,000 career points. For his career he is averaging 11.7 points a game.

Against Miami (Fla.) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, Lester Abram recorded a career-high four steals. Currently, he has 72 in his career for a 1.0 per game average. He just needs 28 steals to reach 100 in his career.

Lester Abram has been a big asset to the Wolverines when up at the free throw line. Overall, Abram is second all-time at Michigan with an 84.7 career free throw percentage. As a freshman, he set the U-M freshman-class record shooting 85.6 percent, and then came back the next season to tie Cazzie Russell's sophomore-class mark with an 84.3 percentage. To start the 2005-06 season, Abram has gone 26-for-32 for an 81.3 percentage mark.

Lester Abram missed the 28 games of the 2004-05 season following surgery (Dec. 16, 2004) for a left shoulder injury. Abram, who played in only three games, applied for and was granted a medical hardship (redshirt) to regain an additional year of eligibility. He made his return to the floor in the 2005-05 season-opener against Central Michigan (Nov. 18), scoring 19 points.

SENIOR CENTER AMADOU BA

For two straight years, Amadou Ba has been named as U-M's Travis Conlan Sportsmanship Award winner for his dedication and work ethic for the Wolverine program. He has played in 16 career games for the Wolverines.

Amadou Ba has played in five games in 2005-06 coming off the bench. He filled in a Boston University (Nov. 22) when the U-M post players got into foul trouble and come off the bench in the final minutes against Central Michigan (Nov. 18), Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, Delaware State (Dec. 7) and Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22).

Amadou Ba scored his first career points on a lay-up from an Alex Brzozowicz bounce pass in the closing minutes against UNC Asheville (Dec. 21, 2004). He has tied that mark on two other occasions -- with two points against Penn State (Feb. 23, 2005), on a putback that was ruled goaltending after a Nittany Lion tipped it out of the rim, and with two points against Central Michigan (Nov. 18, 2005) on a lay-up from an inside bounce pass from Sherrod Harrell.

Amadou Ba saw a career-high seven minutes of action at Boston University (Nov. 22). Ba came off the bench after the Wolverine post players got into foul trouble in the first half. Ba finished the game with a career-high-tying two rebounds and his first career steal.

Amadou Ba speaks five different languages. He speaks English, French, Arabic and two forms of West African dialect.

SENIOR FORWARD GRAHAM BROWN

Graham Brown was named one of four captains by his teammates for the 2005-06 season. He joins Lester Abram, Sherrod Harrell and Chris Hunter as the program's first quad-captain appointment.

Graham Brown recorded four straight games with 10-or-more rebounds. During that streak, he had 10 at South Florida (Dec. 10), a career-high 12 against Delaware State (Dec. 7), 11 against Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) and 10 at Notre Dame, which helped him to his second career double-double. For the season, Brown is averaging a career-best and team-high 7.8 rebounds a game. Throughout the season, he has recorded 10-or-more rebounds in five games.

Graham Brown has drawn 13 charging calls. Recently, ESPN's Bill Raftery labeled Brown, the "junk-man" and/or "glue-man" because he does all the little things for the Wolverines -- setting screens, drawing charges, tip-in buckets, leading by example, grabbing key rebounds and just showing how he has become a savvy veteran.

The "Maize Rage," U-M's student crowd, has made Graham Brown its second Wolverine to earn a nickname. Brown is affectionately known as "Moose" to the Maize and Blue faithful. However, Brown prefers the nickname "Hambone" given to him by his father, Rich, when he was a small boy. The Maize Rage's first dubbing was "Air Georgia" for Brent Petway.

Graham Brown has always been one of the Wolverines "Big Men." He has trimmed down for his final season, after turning his body fat into muscle. Brown worked all summer, and continues to work with U-M Strength coach Jim Plocki and U-M nutritionist Caroline Mandel on his overall strength and eating habits. He is now a chiseled 245.

Graham Brown's parents, Rich and Mary, have missed a total of three basketball games since Brown's middle school playing days. Both have travel to all the home and road games and have recently had to purchase a new car for their travels after putting over 200,000 miles on their previous car. Both are retired school teachers.

Graham Brown has 492 career points. He is just eight points away for hitting the half-century mark. For his career he is averaging 5.2 points per game. He also has 462 career rebounds, putting him eight points and 38 rebounds away from becoming the 34th member of U-M's 500 point/rebound club.

With 10 points against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), Graham Brown has two games scoring in double figures this season. He had a season best 13 points at Notre Dame (Dec. 3). Brown currently has 492 career points for a 5.2 per game average. He has 12 career games scoring in double figures.

With 13 points and 10 rebounds at Notre Dame (Dec. 3), Graham Brown turned in his second-career double-double. The other time Brown accomplished the feat was at Penn State (Jan. 15, 2005). On both occasions Brown has recorded a double-double, he was awarded the Player of the Game by the ESPN broadcast.

FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR GUARD HAYES GROOMS

After transferring to Michigan and then walking on to the Wolverine squad, Hayes Grooms will be able to play his final season after having to sit out due to NCAA transfer rules last season. Prior to Michigan, Grooms played three years at Lamar University. He played in 62 games and averaging 1.5 points, 0.8 rebounds and 1.1 assists in his time at Lamar.

Hayes Grooms has played in four games this season coming off the bench during the final minutes against Central Michigan (Nov. 18), Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, at South Florida (Dec. 10) and Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22). He recorded his first Michigan stats with two points, on free throws, and a rebound against Miami (Ohio).

SENIOR GUARD SHERROD HARRELL

Sherrod Harrell was named one of four captains by his teammates for the 2005-06 season. He joins Lester Abram, Graham Brown and Chris Hunter as the program's first quad-captain appointment.

Sherrod Harrell has played in four game this season coming off the bench in the final minutes against Central Michigan (Nov. 18), Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, Delaware State (Dec. 7) and Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22).

Sherrod Harrell started 12 games in 2004-05 after the Wolverine perimeter was riddled with injuries. With the extra time on the floor, Harrell tripled his playing time from 13.9 minutes as a junior compared to 4.5 as a sophomore. He set a career-high 31 minutes of action against Illinois (Feb. 8, 2005). He played in 20 or more minutes in seven games in 2004-05.

Sherrod Harrell set several career bests during the 2004-05 season. He scored a career-high seven points against South Florida (Dec. 11, 2004) before matching it against Minnesota (Feb. 2, 2005). He had a career-high five rebounds against South Florida (Dec. 11, 2004) and a career-high three assists against Boston University (Dec. 14, 2004) and then against at Wisconsin (Feb. 16, 2005).

SENIOR GUARD DANIEL HORTON

Daniel Horton has scored in double figures in 7-of-9 games. He had a season-high 28 points against Butler (Nov. 26). Horton is second on the Wolverines with a career-best 14.8 points a game. Horton is shooting 48.5 percent on the season (47-for-97). He is also shooting 37.0 percent (17-for-46) on three-pointers and 81.5 percent (22-for-27) on free throws.

Daniel Horton has been cool as ice for the Wolverines from the free throw line. Horton went a combined 10-for-10 in the closing minute of games at Boston University (Nov. 22) and against Butler (Nov. 28) to help the Wolverines seals victories. For the season he is shooting 81.5 percent (22-for-26).

With his 17-point effort against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), Daniel Horton continues to move closer to the next spot on U-M's all-time scoring list. He is currently 31st all-time with 1,166 points, which is 18 points away from the 30th spot held by Rickey Green (1,184 points, 1976-77). For his career, Horton has averaged 13.6 points a game with 64 career games scoring in double figures and 13 games with 20-or-more points. He has a career-best of 31 points at Purdue (Feb. 19, 2003).

Daniel Horton leads the Wolverines overall with a career-best 5.0 assists per game average. He recorded a season-best nine assists against Delaware State (Dec. 7) and has five games with five-or-more assists this season.

With his three assists against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), Daniel Horton moved into the ninth spot all-time for career assists. He has 355 career assists and needs just three to move in the eighth spot held by Steve Grote (358, 1974-77). Horton has recorded five or more assists in 39 career games and is averaging 4.1 a game for his career. He had a career-best 10 assists at Penn State (Jan. 15, 2005).

After draining four triples against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), Daniel Horton has 179 career three-point field goals to put third outright on Michigan's all-time list. He needs just 10 to move past LaVell Blanchard (189, 2000-03 for No. 2 all-time. In addition, Horton is second all-time in three-point field goal attempts with 517 career attempts.

Daniel Horton tied a career-high with five steals against South Florida (Dec. 10). He has also accomplished the feat with five steals vs. Colorado (Nov. 17, 2004) in the second round of the Preseason NIT. With those five steals, Horton moved into seventh all-time at U-M with 141 career steals. He is just one away from the sixth spot held by Thad Garner (142, 1979-82). He now needs just nine steals to join Michigan's five-member 150 steal club.

SENIOR FORWARD CHRIS HUNTER

Chris Hunter was named one of four captains by his teammates for the 2005-06 season. He joins Lester Abram, Graham Brown and Sherrod Harrell as the program's first quad-captain appointment.

Chris Hunter is enrolled in U-M's prestigious Stephen M. Ross School of Business, which is ranked as one of the top three business schools in the country. Hunter is on track to graduate with a degree in business administration and has interests in starting his own business.

Chris Hunter has recorded back-to-back 15-point performances, which is a season-best output. He had 15 against UCLA (Dec. 17) to lead the Wolverines. He also had eight rebounds in a season-best 27 minutes of action. He the enjoyed a perfect night of shooting connecting on 4-of-4 attempts from the floor, including three triples and 4-of-4 attempts from the free-throw line against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22) for his second straight 15-point outing. For the season, he is averaging 7.3 points per game coming off the bench.

Chris Hunter saw his offensive production nearly double in 2004-05 as he averaged 9.3 points per game. He averaged 5.4 as a freshman and 5.0 as a sophomore. In 2005-06, Hunter has come off the bench to average 7.3 points and 3.8 rebounds a game.

With his 11 points against Miami (Fla.) (Nov. 29) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, Chris Hunter surpassed 500 career points. He currently has 552 career points. For his career he is averaging 6.6 points per game. He also has 291 career rebounds, putting him 209 rebounds away from becoming the 34th member of the 500 point/rebound club.

Chris Hunter's career-high 22 points against High Point (Dec. 7, 2004). Hunter posed a threat to the Panthers after putting up 15 points in the first half and, as a result, was double-teamed in the second frame. Despite the disadvantage, Hunter was still able to put up seven points in the final 20 minutes to finish the contest with 22 points.

Chris Hunter continues to have the green light when it comes to the long-range shot. So far this season he has gone 7-for-15 from long range (46.7 percent). In 2004-05, he was 11-for-31 from the three-point line for a 35.5 percentage mark. For his career he is shooting 37.3 percent (22-for-59) from three-point land.

Chris Hunter tied a career-high with three steals at Boston University (Nov. 22). He has had three steals on two other occasions – against Iowa (March 12, 2005) and against Purdue (March 8, 2003). In his career, he had 38 career steals.

Chris Hunter has recorded at least one block in 47 of 84 career games, tallying 68 total blocks in his career. He had a career-best four swats against Eastern Michigan (Dec. 23, 2002). He needs 22 blocks to crack Michigan's all-time top 10.

FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR GUARD TROY SANCHEZ

The Wolverines welcomed Troy Sanchez to the roster after he walked on in the October tryout period. He has spent the last two years as a Crisler Arena worker, who frequently could be found playing in pick-up games with the Wolverines during the summer and offseason months.

JUNIOR GUARD DION HARRIS

Dion Harris has played in 74 consecutive games for the Wolverines with 49 career starts. After starting just 11 games as a freshman, Harris received the starting nod in 30 games as a sophomore and started eight games in 2005-06. In fact, since Lester Abram surrendered his starting position to build Harris's confidence in 2003-04 with five games remaining, Harris has started in 46 of the last 48 games for the Maize and Blue.

With his 27 assists and nine turnovers, Dion Harris is second the Big Ten in Assist/Turnover ratio. He had three games with four-or-more assists and has not had more than two turnovers in a game the entire season. He is averaging 3.0 assists per game.

With two points against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22), Dion Harris has 867 career points in his Michigan career.

WOLVERINE GAME NOTES

He needs just 133 more to become the 40th Wolverines to reach 1,000 career points. For his career he is averaging 11.7 points a game. He has scoring in double-figures in 48 career games with eight games scoring 20 or more points.

Dion Harris had a career-best 25 points against Iowa (March 5), after going 9-for-25 from the field, which included a career-best six three-point fields. He has eight career games with 20 or more points in a game.

Dion Harris has played 30-or-more minutes in 48 of 74 career games and he has reached 40 minute mark five times, including a career-high 44 against Arizona (Nov. 24, 2004) in the Preseason NIT semifinal.

With 142 of his 294 career field goals coming from beyond the arc, Dion Harris has produced 48.2 percent of his offense from long range.

Dion Harris has a career three-point percentage of 34.0 (142-for-418). His 142 triples currently rank him fifth all-time, just 18 away from fourth place held by Robbie Reid (160, 1998-99), while his 418 attempts are fourth, 67 away from third held by LaVell Blanchard (485, 2000-03).

With three assists at Notre Dame (Dec. 3), Dion Harris passed 200 in his career. He currently has 212 assists and is averaging 2.9 assists per game in his career. As a sophomore, Harris recorded his first season with 100-plus assists after finishing with 109. He had a career-high of eight against UNC Asheville (Dec. 31, 2004).

JUNIOR FORWARD BRENT PETWAY

Michigan announced junior Brent Petway will miss the fall semester of the basketball season due to academic ineligibility. Petway will be allowed to practice but cannot participate in games during the first semester. Petway has played in 62 career games with five starts. He averaged 5.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.2 blocks while shooting 60.4 percent from the field in his two seasons with the Wolverines.

Brent Petway underwent left shoulder surgery (May 2, 2005) following the 2004-05 season. After injuring the shoulder in high school, he aggravated the injury against Delaware State (Dec. 29, 2004). He wore a protective brace the remainder of the season. Following the season, he elected to have surgery to correct the injury and has made a full recovery.

Brent Petway showed his talents off the court at the annual student-athlete fund-raiser "Mock Rock," benefiting U-M's Mott's Children's Hospital. Petway brought the house down with his rendition of the rap song of Dem Franchize Boyz called "Tall T." He then broke out into a breakdance routine during his six-minute act. He received a perfect 50 from the judges to win the annual student-athlete competition. "Mock Rock" raised over $10,000 for the hospital.

Brent Petway is 142-for-235 for his career from the field for a 60.4 percentage mark. Of his 142 field goals, 73 of them have come via the dunk, for 51.4 percent of his offensive production coming above the rim.

Brent Petway had 47 blocks for a 1.6 per game average throughout the 2004-05 season. His total as a sophomore smashed the 28 he had as a freshman. He has 75 career swats, which is only three away from cracking into Michigan's all-time top 10. For his career he has recorded at least one block in 35 of 62 career games including 17 multi-block games.

JUNIOR FORWARD COURTNEY SIMS

Courtney Sims has played in 74 consecutive games for the Wolverines with 66 career starts. He started all 34 as a freshman, 23 as a sophomore and has started all nine games as a junior.

Courtney Sims was named the Big Ten Player of the Week for Dec. 11 after averaging 23.0 points and 10.0 rebounds, and shooting 76.0 (19-for-25) in wins over Delaware State (Dec. 7) and at South Florida (Dec. 10). Against Delaware State,

Morris, Sims Sign with U-M During Early Signing Period

The University of Michigan men's basketball program received National Letters of Intent (Nov. 9) from two student-athletes on the first day of the early signing period: DeShawn Sims, a 6-8 forward from Detroit, Mich., and K'len Morris, a 6-4 wing from Grand Blanc, Mich.

Sims, who is a candidate for the 2005 Michigan's Hal Schram Mr. Basketball Award, has averaged 14.8 points, 8.8 rebounds and 2.0 blocks per game over the last three seasons at Pershing High School in Detroit. Sims was a 2005 Detroit News Dream Team and Associated Press and Detroit Free Press Class A All-State selection as a junior. He was also a Detroit News and Detroit Free Press All-Detroit and All-Metro first team selection.

Morris, who is also a candidate for the 2005 Michigan's Hal Schram Mr. Basketball Award, has averaged 12.9 points, 6.7 rebounds and 4.8 assists in his high school career. As a junior, Morris led Grand Blanc to its first regional game win since 1959 in the state playoffs and was an Associated Press and Detroit News Class A All-State selection after he scored 15-plus points in 18 of 25 games. He has also been an All-Big Nine Conference first team selection in 2005 and a third team selection in 2004.

Sims tallied a career-high 33 points on a career-best 13-for-17 shooting from the field. He also had 13 rebounds to collect his sixth career double-double. Sims wrapped up the week by going 6-for-8 from the field (.750) for 13 points along with seven rebounds, all offensive, at South Florida.

Courtney Sims tallied a career-high 33 points on a career-best 13 field goals on a career-best 17 field goal attempts against Delaware State (Dec. 7). Sims also tallied 13 rebounds to help give him his sixth career double-double. The last time a Wolverine had 30-or-more points was when Daniel Horton had a career-best 31 points at Purdue (Feb. 19, 2003). Sims' previous best was 25 point against Northwestern (March 10, 2005) in the first round of the Big Ten Tournament.

Courtney Sims has now scored in double figures in 7-of-9 games, with three games over 20 points and a career-high 33 points against Delaware State (Dec. 7). He leads the Wolverines with a career-best 15.2 points a game.

Courtney Sims remains red hot from inside the post as he is shooting 65.9 percent from the field as he is 54-for-82 on the season. He set a new career-high with 13 field goals against Delaware State (Dec. 7) as well as attempts with 17 total. His previous best marks from the field were 10 field goals earlier this season against Butler (Nov. 26) and 16 attempts against Colorado (Nov. 17, 2005).

WOLVERINE GAME NOTES

Courtney Sims is currently averaging a career-best 7.3 rebounds a game. He has 66 total boards through eight games, with 42 coming at home and 24 on the road. He had a season-best 13 rebounds against Delaware State (Dec. 7). He set a career-high with seven offensive rebounds at South Florida (Dec. 10).

Courtney Sims has scored in double figures in 35 career games and is averaging 9.5 points per game. He has 705 career points, which is 95 points away from 800. He has four career games with 20 or more points in a game. He needs 295 to reach 1,000 points.

With his eight rebounds at Wisconsin (Feb. 16, 2005), Courtney Sims reached the 300-rebound mark in his young career. Sims has 387 career rebounds and has steadily improved his glasswork in each of his seasons – 4.7 (2003-04), 5.2 (2004-05) and 7.3 (2005-06). He needs just 113 to become the 34th member of the U-M 500 rebounding club.

Courtney Sims has 705 career points and 387 career rebounds, putting him 113 rebounds away from becoming the 34th member of the 500 point/rebound club.

Courtney Sims had a career-best 15 rebounds against Purdue (Feb. 7, 2004) as a freshman. It marked the first time a Wolverine has recorded over 15 rebounds since the 1996 season when Maceo Baston (1995-98) had 15 against Texas in the NCAA Tournament. Sims currently has six career games with 10 or more rebounds.

Courtney Sims has led U-M in blocked shots in each of his first two seasons. As a sophomore, he had 52 blocks, and as a freshman, he led the Big Ten with 68. He has 134 career blocks, which puts him, sixth all-time. He needs just two blocks to catch Josh Asselin (136, 1997-2001) for the fifth spot all-time and 16 blocks to become the fourth member of the U-M 150 block club.

Courtney Sims has recorded at least one block in 63 of 74 career games including 42 multi-block performances. Sims set a career-high with six blocks against Oakland (Nov. 21, 2003), which was his first collegiate game.

SOPHOMORE WING RON COLEMAN

Ron Coleman has been reunited with his high school teammate Jerret Smith. Both starred at nearby Romulus High School, playing together during the 2003-04 season. Together they went 17-5 overall advancing to the second round of the Class A State Championship playoffs.

In the summer of 2005, Ron Coleman traveled with the Big Ten Foreign Touring Team throughout Spain. He averaged 13.0 points and 3.4 rebounds through the five-game tour, which was coached by Illinois' Bruce Weber.

Ron Coleman has not missed a game in his career, playing in 40 straight games. After injuries decimated the lineup last season, he started 24 of 31 contests and played 27.8 minutes per game in his rookie campaign. So far this year, he has played in all nine games, with one start. He is averaging 13.0 minutes a game.

Ron Coleman earned his first start of the season against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22). He responded as he scored a season-high 10-points against the RedHawks after going 3-for-4 from the field with a triple and a 3-for-4 performance from the free throw line.

With two rebounds against Miami (Ohio) (Dec. 22) and Ron Coleman has exactly 100 boards in his career. He has a career-best of seven rebounds at UCLA (Dec. 18, 2004) and against South Florida (Dec. 11, 2004).

With additional depth on the Wolverine 2005-06 roster, Ron Coleman will be seen playing both inside the post and on the perimeter. The jack-of-all-trades Coleman is averaging 13.0 minutes per game coming off the bench and is averaging 3.8 points and 2.3 rebounds.

Ron Coleman scored a career-best 18 points against Fairfield (Jan. 8, 2005). Coleman topped his previous best of 17 points, which he recorded against UNC Asheville (Dec. 31, 2004). He has scored in double figures in 12 career games.

Alex Brzozowicz has played in two career games and has recorded one career assist. That assist was a bounce pass to Amadou Ba, who scored his first career points.

FRESHMAN CENTER PHIL DEVRIES

Newcomer Phil DeVries is the fourth member of the Wolverines freshman class. The 6-10 shot blocker from Shelby Township has been a welcome addition to the team and will continue to work with the U-M practice squads. He chose to walk-on to Michigan rather than attending Central Michigan.

FRESHMAN FORWARD KENDRIC PRICE

Newcomer Kendric Price has been reunited with fellow Boston, Mass., native Courtney Sims. Both played against each other in the Independent School League during the 2003 season, as Price played a Buckingham Browne & Nichols School, while Sims played at Noble & Greenough School.

FRESHMAN WING JEVOHN SHEPHERD

Even though it is very early in his career, Jevohn Shepherd showed his all-around game at Boston University (Nov. 22). He had five points, five rebounds, an assist, a steal and a block in 20 minutes of action. In addition to his production, he played the focal point of the U-M defensive pressure, along with Daniel Horton, in stopping the Terrier guards in the closing five minutes of the Wolverines 51-46 road win.

Jevohn Shepherd continues to find himself in the Michigan rotation as he has played in eight games. He is averaging 1.9 points and 1.0 rebounds in 7.1 minutes per game in his first season. He has a career-best five points two times – at Boston University (Nov. 22) and at South Florida (Dec. 10) and a career-best five rebounds at Boston U.

Because of his leaping ability, fans have already dubbed Jevohn Shepherd as "Air Canada" after he came to Michigan from Toronto, Ontario, Canada. His dunking prowess has already been on display during the team warm-ups. He joins Brent "Air Georgia" Petway in the airplane nickname department.

Jevohn Shepherd saw his first collegiate action against Central Michigan. He finished the game with three points and a rebound in nine minutes of action.

FRESHMAN GUARD JERRET SMITH

Newcomer Jerret Smith has reunited with his high school teammate Ron Coleman. Both starred at nearby Romulus High School, playing together during the 2003-04 season. Together, they went 17-5 overall advancing to the second round of the Class A State Championship playoffs.

Jerret Smith has come off the bench in the first nine games to help run the Wolverine offense. He is averaging 2.3 points, 0.9 rebounds 2.6 assists in 14.6 minutes per game. He had a career-best eight points and nine assists against Central Michigan (Nov. 18) in his first collegiate game.

Jerret Smith has remained perfect from the free throw line. He is a perfect 8-for-8 through nine games.

Jerret Smith has 23 assists for a 2.6 per game average. So far this season he has recorded at least one assist 8-of-9 games and had a career-best nine assists in his very first collegiate game against Central Michigan (Nov. 18).

In his first collegiate game, Jerret Smith came out and recorded nine assists, the most by a freshman since Daniel Horton had nine against IUPUI (Jan. 4, 2004), which was his 13th career game. Smith also finished the game against the Chippewa's with eight points and a steal in his first game.

TOMMY AMAKER'S MICHIGAN SEASON CAPSULES

2004-05: 13-18 overall; 4-12 Big Ten

In his fourth season, Amaker's Wolverines continued to show progress despite having a host of injuries causing nine different Wolverines to lose 86 total games during the season. Using 16 different starting lineups, U-M won 12 of its first 17 games and advanced to the Final Four of the Preseason NIT before injuries riddled the second half of the season. Dion Harris, who earned All-Big Ten honorable mention honors, blossomed in his second year playing all three perimeter positions, while leading the team in scoring, assists, steals and minutes. In addition, John Andrews, J.C. Mathis and Dani Wohl all earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for their work away from the hardwood.

2003-04: 23-11 overall; 8-8 Big Ten; 2004 NIT Champions

In his third season, Amaker led the Wolverines to a 23-11 record and the 2004 National Invitation Tournament title. The 20-plus win season was the first for the Wolverines since the 1997-98 season. The Wolverines defeated Rutgers 62-55 in the NIT championship game. The Maize and Blue finished 8-8 in the Big Ten regular season, getting the No. 5 seed in the Big Ten Tournament, earning just the third first-round bye in history. Several Wolverines earned postseason accolades including Daniel Horton's NIT MVP and All-Tournament selection. Bernard Robinson Jr., who was selected in the second round of the NBA Draft by the Charlotte Bobcats, and Lester Abram were named to the All-Big Ten third team, while Dion Harris and Courtney Sims, who was the first freshman to lead the Big Ten in blocked shots in eight years, were selected to the All-Freshman team. Harris also was named to the NIT All-Tournament team. Colin Dill, J.C. Mathis and Dani Wohl were all recognized on the All-Big Ten Academic Team.

2002-03: 18-12 overall; 10-6 Big Ten

In his second season, Amaker led the Wolverines to a 17-13 record, then its best finish in five years. With a 10-6 conference mark, U-M tied for third, garnering the No. 3 seed in the Big Ten Tournament, the program's highest-ever tournament seeding and earning the second, first-round bye ever. After starting 0-6, Amaker and his Wolverines turned the season around with a 13-game winning streak that tied for the fifth-best streak in Michigan history. Michigan also snapped an eight-game losing streak to Michigan State with a 60-58 victory over its in-state rival at Crisler Arena. He guided the Wolverines to numerous individual accolades in 2002-03. LaVell Blanchard earned All-Big Ten first team honors while Daniel Horton and Bernard Robinson Jr. were named to the second and third teams, respectively. In addition, Horton was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and to the inaugural All-Freshman team, while Colin Dill was named as an Academic All-Big Ten performer.

2001-02: 11-18 overall; 5-11 Big Ten

In his first season, Amaker led the Wolverines to an 11-18 overall record and a 5-11 mark in Big Ten play. The Maize and Blue were the No. 10 seed in the 2002 Big Ten Tournament and defeated No. 7 Northwestern, 72-51, in the first round before bowing out to No. 2 and eventual tournament champion Ohio State, 75-68, in the second round. The Wolverines set the single-season school record for free throw percentage with 75.4 percent, with four Wolverines averaging above 80 percent from the free throw line. The Wolverines also shot a school-record 32 three-point field goal attempts at Purdue (Feb. 13) at Mackey Arena, which bettered the previous record of 30 that was tied at Colorado State (Feb. 11). LaVell Blanchard was named to the All-Big Ten third team, while Ron Garber and Mike Gottfredson were each honored to the Academic All-Big Ten.

Horton Leads the Way in Exhibition Victory Over Lakers
ANN ARBOR, Mich. -Michigan opened its 2005-06 season with a 77-69 exhibition win over Grand Valley State at Crisler Arena. The Wolverines stormed out of the gates, gaining a 24-point second-half advantage before a late Laker run cut the lead to eight with five minutes to go. However, the Maize and Blue prove to be too much, as a series of free throws sealed the U-M victory. Daniel Horton led four Wolverines in double figures with 23 points on 7-of-10 shooting, included four triples, to go along with his five assists and three steals. Chris Hunter paced the front court with 15 points, including going 2-for-3 on three-pointers. He also had six rebounds, two blocks and three steals. Lester Abram chipped in with 10 points, while Graham Brown had 12.

Daniel Horton led the Wolverines in the first exhibition with 23 points, including four three-pointers. He also had five assists and three steals.

Ron Coleman went 8-for-10 from the field to lead all scorers with 17 points. He collected 15 of his 17 points in the second half.

Six Double Digit Scorers Lead U-M in Exhibition Victory
ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan closed out its exhibition season with a dominating 101-56 performance against the Northern Michigan Wildcats at Crisler Arena. Led by a balanced attack both offensively and defensively throughout the Maize and Blue lineup, the Wolverines had six players score in double figures, including all five starters. Ron Coleman led the way for the Maize and Blue scoring 15 of his game-high 17-points in the second half, as he went 8-for-10 from the field. Dion Harris chipped in with 14-points, while leading U-M with five assists and no turnovers. Daniel Horton had another fine exhibition performance with 12 points, four assists and five steals in the game. Graham Brown had 12 points to go along with his seven rebounds and two steals, while Courtney Sims matched Brown's tallies as he also recorded 12 points and seven rebounds in the contest.

Michigan Rolls Past Central Michigan in Season Opener

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan opened its 2005-06 campaign in style, defeating Central Michigan, 87-60 at Crisler Arena. The Wolverines controlled the inside game from paint on the outset, outscoring the Chippewas 34-18 down low, while out-rebounding CMU 37-21 en route to the victory. The Wolverines had three players in double figures, led by Courtney Sims, who scored a game-high 20-points on 9-of-10 shooting in addition to six rebounds and two blocks. Lester Abram added 19 points, which included a perfect 4-for-4 from the foul line, while Dion Harris connected on three shots from downtown en route to his 13-points. Graham Brown had a career-best-tying 11 rebounds to go along with five points and one assist and Jerret Smith showed his talent in his first-ever collegiate game, leading the team with nine assists in addition to eight points.

Courtney Sims had a game-high 20 points after going 9-for-10 from the field. He added six rebounds, two blocks and a steal in 26 minutes.

Horton, Sims Carry U-M to Comeback Win Over Butler

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan team kept its winning ways alive, moving to 3-0 on the season with a 78-74 down-to-the-wire victory over Butler at Crisler Arena. For the second-straight game, the Wolverines rode the clutch play of Daniel Horton, who scored a game-high 28 points, including six straight clutch free throws in the final 40 seconds to close out the win for the Wolverines. The Maize and Blue finished the hard-fought battle with two players reaching 20 points as Horton led with 28 points on 9-for-13 shooting while Courtney Sims had a career-high 10 field goals on 14 attempts for 21 points. Horton's contribution went far beyond points as he had seven assists, four rebounds, four steals, one block and a perfect 9-for-9 from the free throw line. All of Sims' 21 points were instrumental to the Michigan cause as he scored 18 of the Wolverines' 37 points in the first half. In addition to his scoring, Sims also added seven boards and one block. Lester Abram also reached double digits for the third straight game, finishing the contest with 15 points.

Daniel Horton guided the Wolverines for a second straight game, as he finished with 28 points, four rebounds, seven assists and four steals in 38 minutes of action.

Graham Brown tied a career-high with 11 rebounds against Miami (Fla.). He also drew four charging calls for the Wolverines in the 21-point win. For his efforts he was named the ESPN2 Player of the Game.

Wolverines Meet Challenge, Blow Away Miami (Fla.)

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan improved its record to a perfect 4-0 with a 74-53 victory over the Miami (Fla.) Hurricanes in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge at Crisler Arena. With the excitement in the air from the atmosphere, the Wolverines got off to a bumpy first half start but found their rhythm in the second half and gradually pulled away. The Maize and Blue used a 23-for-29 night from the foul line, and a 42-to-27 rebounding advantage, including 18 offensive rebounds to close out the Hurricanes. Michigan finished the game with five players in double figures as Dion Harris spearheaded the Maize and Blue effort with 16 points, six rebounds and six assists. Lester Abram pitched in with 14 points, four rebounds and a career-high four steals, while Daniel Horton added 13 points on three-of-five shooting. Courtney Sims posted 12 points and six rebounds, Chris Hunter had 11 points and two blocks while Graham Brown had four points, but added a career-high-tying 11 rebounds in addition to him drawing four charging calls.

Brown, Harris Lead Late Rally in Victory at Notre Dame
SOUTH BEND, Ind. -- Michigan kept its record perfect (5-0) with a clutch 71-67 road win over Notre Dame before a sellout crowd at Joyce Center. The win showed the depth, talent and poise of the solid Wolverine squad as numerous players stepped up in critical situations to keep themselves in the game and set up the opportunity for the victory in the final two minutes of play. The strong and unwavering play of Graham Brown proved critical for the Wolverines as he turned in his second-career double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, going perfect on the day with 6-of-6 from the floor. Daniel Horton finished with a team-leading 19 points to go along with seven assists, continuing to be a guiding force on the floor with sound decisions at critical points throughout the game. Dion Harris had 12 points, including a clutch two-point basket with 16 seconds remaining to help seal the win for the Maize and Blue, while Courtney Sims finished the game with 11 points to go along with nine rebounds, two blocks, one assist and a career-high-tying two steals.

Dion Harris' jumper with 16 seconds remaining helped the Wolverines the thrilling road win at Notre Dame. Harris finished with 12 points, six rebounds and three assists.

Courtney Sims exploded for a career-high 33 points on 13-of-17 shooting. He also had 13 rebounds to recorded his sixth career double-double against Delaware State.

SimsCity: Center Dominates Paint in Win Over Hornets
ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan stayed undefeated on the season with a 69-49 victory over Delaware State at Crisler Arena. The Wolverines (6-0) were equally impressive on both ends of the floor, converting on 27-of-45 (.600) from the field while holding the Hornets (2-6) to 14-of-52 (.269) shooting. U-M also held a substantial advantage on the glass, outrebounding its opponent 43-18. Courtney Sims put forth a dominating performance to lead U-M to victory, scoring a career-high 33 points on 13-of-17 shooting to go along with 13 rebounds, which gave him his sixth career double-double. Lester Abram also finished in double figures for the Wolverines with 10 points. Daniel Horton scored six points, but dished out a game-high nine assists, while Graham Brown pulled down a career-best 12 boards to go along with his two points and one assist.

Abram, Horton Help Wolverines Run Past South Florida

TAMPA, Fla. -- Michigan continued its winning ways and stayed a perfect 7-0 after a dominating 68-47 victory over the University of South Florida at the Sun Dome. The Wolverines, who earned their third straight road victory of the season, used their intense defensive pressure in the first half holding the Bulls to an eight and a half minute scoring drought and 12 turnovers to build a 20-point lead which was never relinquished as the Maize and Blue controlled play throughout the second half rolling onto the win. Lester Abram led a trio of Wolverine scorers as he had a team-high 18 points on 5-of-10 shooting, while collecting two rebounds, a block and a steal in 28 minutes of action. Daniel Horton went 6-for-12 from the field en route to a 16-point performance. He added five assists and a career-high-tying five steals. Courtney Sims finished with 13 points on 6-for-8 shooting and had seven rebounds, all offensive and a block. Graham Brown recorded his fourth straight game with 10-or-more rebounds as he led the Wolverines with 10 rebounds, along with two points and two assists.

Lester Abram's 18 points helped U-M remain undefeated on the season. He went 5-for-10 from the field and added two rebounds, a block and a steal in the Wolverines lopsided win.

U-M Soars Into Holiday Break With Win Over RedHawks

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Michigan improved to 8-1 with an 87-80 win over Miami (Ohio) at Crisler Arena. After a tight first half in which both teams shot better than 60 percent, the Wolverines broke things open in the second half of play by holding the hot-shooting RedHawks to 44.4 percent (16-of-36) from the floor while maintaining their steady shooting and finishing the game with a 64.3 percentage (27-of-42). Michigan had five players in double digits with Daniel Horton leading the way with 17 points, hitting 6-of-10 from the floor including four triples and three assists. Courtney Sims had 16 points, shooting 5-of-10 from the field including 6-of-7 from the charity stripe. Chris Hunter was an integral part of Michigan sealing the victory in the second half finishing the game with perfect shooting. Hunter went 4-of-4 from the floor including a career-best 3-for-3 from long range, rounding out his performance with 4-of-4 from the free throw line. Graham Brown and Ron Coleman, who started his first game, each finished the game with 10 points.

Daniel Horton led the Wolverines with 17 points on 6-of-10 shooting, including four triples against Miami (Ohio). He added three assists and a steal in the victory.
